Duration: 2 ½ Hours Marks: 80

Note: 1. Attempt any four questions

- 2. All questions carry equal marks. (20 marks each)
- 1. Investigate the historical roots of the heteronormative regime and its evolution over time.
- 2. Explore the emergence of intersectionality as a critical framework in feminist theory
- 3. Examine Mary Wollstonecraft's arguments for women's education in "A Vindication of the Rights of Woman."
- 4. Discuss Kate Millett's critique of patriarchy in her seminal work "Sexual Politics."
- 5. Analyze Urmila Pawar's contributions to Dalit feminist literature and activism.
- 6. Evaluate the concept of hegemonic masculinity and its influence on societal norms.
- 7. Elucidate Tarabai Shinde's critique of gender and caste in her work "Stree-Purush Tulana."
- 8. Analyze the challenges faced by Karve in advocating for sexual reform in early 20th century Indian society.

97234

Duration: 2 1/2 Hours

Marks: 80

Note: 1. Attempt any four questions.

- 2. All questions carry equal marks (20 marks each).
- 1. Examine the concepts of Sex, Gender and Heteronormativity.
- 2. Discuss the concept of 'Many Women, Many Feminisms' and its relevance in today's society.
- 3. Examine Liberal Feminism with reference to the views of Mary Wollstonecraft.
- 4. Discuss Radical Feminism with reference to Kate Millet's work 'Sexual Politics'.
- 5. Comment on Urmila Pawar's autobiography 'Aaydaan'.
- 6. Discuss the framework of Masculinity Studies with reference Connell's views.
- 7. Comment on Tarabai Shinde's life and with reference to her work 'Stree-Purush Tulana'.
- 8. Discuss Vidyut Bhagwat's contribution to Women's Movement in Maharashtra.

64681